Dear Mr B [REDACTED]

Further to our previous correspondence, I have today caught up with the site with regard to your brother's care plan.

There has been some staff absence this week and collating the details has, I am sorry to say, been slightly delayed. The copy of the care plan will be sent out to you in the registered post on Monday.

I apologise for this delay as I know you have already been waiting some time for this information.

I have asked the site to confirm to you, in writing on Monday, that the care plan has been sent.

Yours sincerely,

M. D. [REDACTED]
