Dear Mr B[REDACTED]

Thank you for your e-mail dated the 20th October 2016 re: DB home visit.

Unfortunately I am unable to implement a visit on the 21st October 2016 as requested, this is due to not having adequate time to organise company transport . Although the date 21st October 2016 was originally available we have not been given sufficient time to implement this. Going forward we can offer the dates of:

24 th October 2016	12:00 midday to 16:00
31 st October 2016	12:00 midday to 16:00
28 th October 2016	12:00 midday to 16:00

Although these dates are available please be mindful we will require sufficient notice to implement this in a structured format.

Should you require any further information could you please forward all correspondence to [H\[REDACTED\]House@priorygroup.com](mailto:H[REDACTED]House@priorygroup.com) or telephone H[REDACTED] House on 01886 [REDACTED]

Regards

Dear Mr G [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email.

In light of new information, I note your continued discrimination, lack of support and abuse of my brother's rights.

I request to know why yet another established celebratory date has been removed?

As my brother's litigation friend, I request that you send to me, a copy of the Birthdays and family celebratory dates list that H [REDACTED] House had been given during D [REDACTED]'s move in 2013; This can be provided directly to me or via your employer's solicitor Mr D [REDACTED] within the next 10 working days.

If you would prefer to send the copy to my brother's solicitors directly, please inform me, and I will advise them of this.

I look forward to your early reply.

Sincerely

C [redacted] B [redacted]
